*"Tell me and I forget,
involve me and I learn."*-
Benjamin Franklin

Khoj an experiential learning process for the inquisitive growing mind, was organized at Delhi Public School, Patna, on 19th and 20th November, 2022. This event entailed a night camp adorned with cultural and fun events held in the Junior Wing Campus. Not only was this event aimed at providing children an evening of fun, frolic and happiness, but was also designed to give them a sneak peek into the Cowboy culture of Western part of the world. Children got a chance to learn the lifestyle, celebrations and costumes of the Cowboy community through an immersive fun filled evening. With great music, dance and presentations, it was a well-executed night camp. The ambience was filled with fun and merriment. The campers were all geared up to enjoy a 'novel' experience and their enthusiasm was a sight to see! The carefree, lively space was well received by the students as they spent time with their friends and beloved teachers.

This camp gave the children a glimpse of social skills and mutual acceptance and respect for various cultures around the world. Students were shown ways to be self-reliant, at the same time to be of service to others. The teachers being integral part of the event were also gratified by the love and affection received from the students. Students were further encouraged by the Principal and the Headmistress, who also sensitized them about the code of conduct during the stay.

No wonder the enthralled, excited children had an evening of fun, joy and learning at the same time made memories to cherish forever.

ENJOY THE RIDE COWBOY STYLE!

In its never-ending endeavor to enhance learning experience of students, Delhi Public School, Patna organized a night camp. The enthusiasm and excitement had doubled since this long-awaited event was taking place after two years- post pandemic. The children were excited to learn about the new cultural concepts of a global presence and were thrilled to enjoy their night stay in the school. It was a wonderful sight to see bright faces of the children who were enjoying the night, the arrangements and the theme to the fullest. The night camp was a perfect occasion for the students to not only explore a new world but also treasure their memories of the exhilarating night spent in school. The ambience was electrified with the frolic and enthusiasm of the children as there was abundant happiness and free flowing enjoyment experienced by the children. There was a beautifully presented cultural program filled with dance, music and several immaculate presentations. The evening became even more fun filled, when children were served with delectable snacks and they enjoyed the treat and shared a great time with their friends.

This night camp continued to be as entertaining as it could be with screening of a lovely, delightful movie. They also savored an enjoyable dinner followed by a bonfire. Afterward, they tapped to the beats of lively music and had a great time. To conclude the day, they moved forward to a restful sleep in a 'night camp'.

The next day commenced with some rejuvenating activities which invigorated them for the upcoming day. The students gathered for the assembly, where they shared and listened to how everyone had a fun time. This was followed by bidding farewell for the day and they returned to their families with several memories which they would treasure for the times to come!

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

1. Teaching children is an accomplishment. Getting children excited about learning is an achievement. The quality of interaction between the learning environment and the child determines the quality of child's development.

Mr. B. Vinod, Principal

2. Everyone's day has the same number of hours but know the true value of time - Snatch, seize and enjoy every moment of it. Hope you had a great time... same as I did.

Mrs. Namrata Prasad, Headmistress

3. Childhood is filled with happy memories that can bring back a slice of that life anytime you recall. These memories are timeless treasures of heart. Enjoy to the fullest.

Chetna Jha, Head student & Teacher Life

4. Night Camp opens a new portal for the blooming buds as they get to experience something new.

GAMES @ DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL/KHOJ

A child starts playing from the cradle itself and that play has to continue systematically even later. To give the Dipsites all the adventures, excitements and break from the monotony of life, various thought provoking indoor and outdoor activities were organised. The exuberant Fiftethers attained a holistic experience with rejuvenation of soul by connecting their energy to reveal their true sense to a feeling of real well-being. The splendid evening was fully soaked in several amusement and fun-filled activities which were conducted to unearth the innate potential to the surface. The ebullient and exuberant students exhibited lively participation in all the undertakings.

Children were filled with fun as they tossed colorful pennies/coins at the container in the game named Water Coin Drop. An open plastic container/glass was placed at the bottom of the aquarium tank filled with water. The players took turns tossing pennies at the container. A point was awarded for the coin that landed in the container which ensured them a gift.

Challenge Your Memory was the game which helped the children to develop memory power. The children were shown the tray with number of things on it once. Thereafter the tray was covered and the children had to recall the items in the given time. The winner was the one who had maximum number of things in the list.

To enhance the concentration and control over bodily actions, an interesting activity, Feed the Stallion was conducted where the children had to feed the clown by throwing a ball into his mouth from a certain distance. Player with three successful attempts was declared the winner.

The next interesting game Ring the Gift was all about building concentration. The children had to toss plastic rings around the gift items which ensured them a gift.

The next entertaining game through which children had fun was Button, Button, Who's Got the Button where each player had to guess who had the button in the hand. Player with right guess was the winner. Rocket Blast was pleasurable and favourite of the children. All that had to be done was to shoot foam rockets or basketball into the Hula Hoop, score the right number of points and win. It was different and..... it was fun!
